DEATH OF R. F. NEISWENDER .- Our paper of Sunday morning, March 8, contained a brief in me announcement of the death of Renten F. Nieswender, of this city, on the preceding day. The remains were buried yesterday in Green Lawn Cemetery, under the auspices of Excelsior Lodge No. 145, I. O. O. F., of this city, of which the deceased was a member.

Thus has terminated the earthly career of one whom none knew intimately but to respect | Try it one and all. and love. He was but twenty seven years of age, and leaves a widow to mourn her earl and sad bereavement, in common with other relatives and a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Neiswender, after having served for some time as Clerk in the office of the Probate Judge of this county, was about two years eince admitted to the bar, and commenced practice with encouraging prospects of success. But the consumption-that fatal blaster of hu man hopes in this world-invaded his bodily frame, which at length was forced to yield to its insidious foe.

Mr. Nelswender possessed an intellect of no common grasp and power, which he had cultivated by study, reading and a close observation of men and thinge. His moral sense was as acute as his intellect was clear and strong .-Possessed of these qualities with good faculties and a pleasing manner to render him popular as an advocate or public speaker, there seemed to be a brilliant career opening before him. But the will of Heaven was otherwise. He has gone, we trust, to reap greater rewards and taste higher enjoyments than the most successful earthly career could have bestowed.

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW .- The January number of this standard British Quarterly contains the following table of contents:

English Convicts-What should be done with them; The Literature of Bohemia; Bishop Co-lense on the Pentateuch; Les Miserables, by Victor Hugo; Indian Annexations-British Treat-ment of Native Princes; The Microscope and its Revelations; Greece and the Greeks; M. Ratezzi and his Administration; Cotemporary Literature.

These various subjects are treated with that liberal spirit and vigor of style and thought, which characterize the contributions of the Westminster. This Review has one feature which renders it particularly valuable to the masss of readers-and that is the summary, under the head of "Cotemporary Literature," of all the late important publications in Theology, Literature, Art, Science and Philosophy. Its notices of books are written in a spirit of liberal, and generally of just criticism.

The Westminster Review is republished by L. Scott & Co., 38 Walker street, New York, at $3 s year, who also republish at the same price each of the following British Reviews:-The London Quarterly; The Edinburg; The North British, and also Blackwood's Magazine Any one of the Reviews and Blackwood may be had at $5 a year.

REPORTED FOR THE STATESMAN

Last Night's Dispatches.

Latest from Franklin. NASHVILLE, March 8 .- The latest news from Franklin states that our troops fought valordusly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded is about three hundred, and about one thousand prisoners; no officers killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves

The rebel loss, according to their own state ment, is double ours.

From Vicksburg.

Philadelphia, March 9.—A special from Cincinnati to the Evening Bulletin, says news is more cheerful from Vicksburg. A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial reports the health of the army improving. Important movements are pending. One gunboat was up the Yazzo pass, and had nearly reached Yazzo city. The can ready for use. The canal at Lake Providence is nearly Advices from below Cairo say transports with rebel troops are expected to come out of White river and offer battle.

Raid on Fairfax Court House. Washington, March 9 .- Information has been received that the rebel Capt. Mosley, with his command, stealthily entered Fairfax Court House this morning at 2 o'clock. They captured the Provost Marshal, patrols, borses, etc., together with Gen. Stoughton and all the detached from his brigade. They also took every horse which could be found. The commanding officer of the post, Col. Johnson of the 5th New York cavalry, made his escape-The rebels searched for men in every direction.

pursuit of the rebels. The enemy appeared suddenly during a rain storm. Gen. Stoughton had cetablished his leadquarters some distance from his brigade. The rebels captured one hundred and ten horses. They went in search of Gen. Wyndham, but that gentleman was in Washington. They however searched his trunk and took his papers. A telegraph operator, it is said, was taken by the raiders.

Cavalry Skirmish.

Cinginnati, March 9.— Information has been received from Nashville that a division of cavalry under Gen. Minty attacked Russell's rebel cavalry at Unionville on the 7th, and captured twenty-one wagons, twenty five tents, eighty-five mules, five borses, and all their camp equipage; also, three Lieutenants, two Captains and fifty three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels loss fifty killed and one hundred wounded. The 7th Pennsylvania and 4th Michigan cavalry did the work

The Harriet Lane-Rebeis Getting Alarmed.

NEW YORK, March 9 -It is reported that the Harriet Lane can never be of any use to the rebels; they have no machine shop in Texas at which she can be repaired. Her port shaft is bent six inches out of line, and two of the flanges on her port wheel are burst. She was thus completely disabled by the last shell thrown from the Owasso.

The following is from the Richmond papers of the 7th:

PORT HUDSON, March 5, via Mosile, 6.-Intelligence, reliable and of the greatest importance, has been received from the front. The preparations being made by Banks's army point irresistably to an early advance. Seventesn mortar boate, the sloop of war Mississippi and the gunboat Essex are now anchored at Baton Rouge. Banks's force is fully thirty thousand. Ambulances and litters are being prepared .-The opinion of military men is that this point will be attacked in a few days. The utmost confidence prevails among both officers and men in our ability to defeat the enemy.

NEW YORK, March 9 .- The New Orleans Era of Ecb. 25th, publishes the following :-We learn on good authority that the establishment at Clinton, La., for the manufacture of ion, etc., was totally destroyed by fire about two weeks since. The loss to the ebels is particularly severe at this time, as troops in that section have been very scantily supplied, their officers depending upon the capacity of their works at Clinton to furnish them. The difficulty alluded to by the Con-federate Secretary of War would be greatly in-creased by this disaster.

DETROIT, March 9.-No serious attempt has been made to renew disturbances. Measures have been taken to maintain order. The city now quiet. It appears only one man was killed and thirty-five buildings destroyed.

Washington, March 9 - Maj-Gen. Fremont was this morning before the committee on Conduet of the War. A strong force of rebels was at Luray recently, and the military authorities at Winchester are of opinion that they are moving on that

Sr. Louis, March 9 .- The Camp Blernt, Arkansas, correspondent of the Democrat of the 26th uit., says the Cherokee National Council has just adjourned. This was the same bouncil that was coerced into the passing an ordinance of secession by the rebel army. Their first act was to repeal it unanimously. They then passed an act depriving of office in the nation and disqualifying all who continued dis-loyal to the United States; also passed an act abolishing slavery.

San Francisco, March 9-Arrangements have been made for the passage of a cavalry battallion raising here to join some Massachu setts regiments, by the steamer Constitution, which sails on the 21st.

Details of news from the Northwestern States of Mexico represent everything unusually prosperous, partially consequent on the isflux of Californians with capital. The rage for mining enterprises is increase
